

St. Mary Student Family Organization (SFO)

SFO is a volunteer organization of families and educators to uplift and support members of St. Mary Catholic Schools. The SFO strives to achieve this goal by providing students and staff with gifts of time, talents, and treasures that will enhance the school now and in the future. Many volunteers are needed to make all SFO programs a success.

Please join us in making St. Mary School a special place for our students, families, and staff!

SFO needs your help to make our new programs benefit the whole school!

Numerous volunteer opportunities are available to get involved with SFO activities, including:
